The Twelve Sent Forth, by Tissot

The Missionary Mandate

The Catechism of the Catholic Church refers to Christ sending His disciples forth as our missionary mandate (Mt 9:36—10:8; CCC§849).

‘By her very mission, “the Church travels the same journey as all humanity and shares the same earthly lot with the world: she is to be a leaven and, as it were, the soul of human society in its renewal by Christ and transformation into the family of God.”

Missionary endeavour requires patience.

It begins with the proclamation of the Gospel to peoples and groups who do not yet believe in Christ, continues with the establishment of Christian communities that are signs of God's presence in the world, and leads to the foundation of local churches. It must involve a process of inculturation if the Gospel is to take flesh in each people's culture. There will be times of defeat.

“With regard to individuals, groups, and peoples, it is only by degrees that the Church touches and penetrates them, and so receives them into a fullness which is Catholic” (CCC§853-854).

Help us with the missionary mandate of our parish. Did Father Daren Bryk, CC's Easter presentation of the Cathedral's parish renewal inspire you about the possibilities of welcoming people into encounter with Christ with Alpha, RCIA, prayer groups, and gatherings? Contact our parish office about how you'd like to help us be inviting, welcoming, and evangelizing.
