THE CATHOLIC WOMEN'S LEAGUE OF CANADA has a Postcards Campaign highlighting the need for Government attention to services and care, including Hospice and Palliative Care. Better access to more supports and options, that are alternatives to Medical Assistance in Dying ("MAiD"), can help more Canadians to live with dignity In support of this national campaign, you may print your name and address on a CWL Postcard and then place it in the Collection basket OR mail it to your Member of Parliament: Jake Stewart, M.P. House of Commons, Ottawa, Ontario K1A 0A6 * Note: Postage stamp is NOT required.

ST. MICHAEL'S BASILICA: PARISH Bible study begins again on Thursday, April 25 and will continue until May 23. It will begin at 1 pm and last approximately an hour. It is in the Parish Hall, in the room to the left of the stage. We will be studying " the Holy Spirit in the ministry and mission of Jesus" as key points in his life, as well as the formation of the Apostolic Church. Through this, we will also be focusing on how the Spirit moves in our own ministry and mission within the Church. This session will be more of a discussion group than a lecture. All are invited and bring a friend as well.
