The Raising of Jairus' daughter
Gabriel von Max

“God did not make death, and
He does not delight in the death of the living” (Wisdom 1:13).

‘Illness, in both the girl and the woman suffering from a hemorrhage, tends towards death, and death imposes itself in all its terrible reality.

Saint Mark (5:21-43) brings us to experience this in his very vivid accounts of these events.

And they help us to listen to Jesus Christ, who is asking us to have faith.

For without faith we cannot understand these miracles, since not only do they lead us to observe that the cure of the woman with a hemorrhage and the resurrection of Jairus' daughter have taken place, but we must confront the faith option in order to arrive at our own cure and our own resurrection’

(from the Pontifical Council for Pastoral Assistance to Health Care Workers, “The Gospel of Health,” 1996).

Our prayer for Canada Day

Eternal God, whose reign extends from sea to sea and whose care endures throughout the ages,
hear our prayers for our country:
grant wisdom to those who govern it and respect for human life and dignity to every citizen, so that justice may flourish
and all peoples live in unity and in peace.
