The Magi, by J.C. Leyendecker

Epiphany of the Lord

Pope Benedict XVI's Jesus of Nazareth: The Infancy Narratives prays over all of the Christmas Mysteries, including, 'who were the magi?' 'In Saint Matthew's Magi story, religious and philosophical wisdom is obviously an incentive to set off in the right direction, it is the wisdom that ultimately leads people to Christ... the men of whom Matthew speaks were not just astronomers. They were "wise."

They represent the inner dynamic of religion toward self-transcendence, which involves a search for truth, a search for the true God and hence "philosophy" in the original sense of the word. Wisdom, then, serves to purify the message of "science": the rationality of that message does not remain at the level of intellectual knowledge, but seeks understanding in its fullness, and so raises reason to its loftiest possibilities...

The key point is this: the wise men from the east are a new beginning. They represent the journeying of humanity toward Christ.'

If you're seeking an epiphany for your family, to further their journey toward Christ, try our freely-accessible parish subscription to FORMED, online, on their phone, or on their smart TV. See how at: stmichaelsbasilica.ca/formed

Then, start off their journey with The Search, which answers What is the meaning of my life? Why am I here? Who am I? Is God real?: watch.formed.org/the-search

Or, go deeper into your Catholic Faith with Symbolon: The Faith of the Church.

You might also try putting a prayer app on their phone, gifting them with the popular Hallow, see: stmichaelsbasilica.ca/giftHallow

See couplesforchrist.ca and contact Brother Dennis Lambus at 506-364-7987, to renew and strengthen marriage and family life, and grow in maturity as men and women of God to fulfill the primary vocation of raising families to love and serve the Lord.

Thank you to all our parish workers and volunteers who tirelessly serve in Christian charity and hospitality, including our CWL, our Knights of Columbus, Saint Vincent de Paul society, reception committee, catechists, lectors, servers, sacristans, fundraisers, counters, choir, ushers, and prayer and faith study ministries.

Blessings in this Christmas Season and a new year in faithful service.

Another winter begins... and if cold weather and road conditions imperil our or others' lives, our faithful and our priests may need to remain safely home. If schools and businesses should be closing due to the winter weather, you may assume our church services, groups, and meetings will close for the day. See more at stmichaelsbasilica.ca/winter .
